

J.O.Y. - The Journey of Yes™

Come walk with me, into a world of endless possibilities, where you are your Greatest Self, leading the greatest life...

J.O.Y. - The Journey of Yes™ is the group online version of The Path of The Invincible™, which is meant for one-on-one clients.

It's time for all of us to have a life of far greater ease and peace, to stop having to strive in any way, and yet be supported to flourish, and be healthy, happy and abundant. We would all love to do so well, have the best relationships, be there for ourselves and each other, and perhaps, to also contribute towards co-creating a world that provides Peace & Plenty For All, and not just some.

The good news is that we carry within us, the biology to go beyond all our human limitations and programming of lack. And it is easy to step into our Greatest Self, into our loving power and Mastery that has always been there, waiting for us to lay claim to it all.

Here's how you can...

Here's how you can say YES to yourself and to life in a very big way... I've spent almost a quarter of a century coming up with and perfecting a formula which has served both myself and all my clients extremely well.

It hasn't come from me figuring out anything or arriving at conclusions through a process of deduction. Instead, it has emerged out of me or through me and my living life fully. It is in total alignment with how life on earth operates and human beings function, in relation to our place in the Universe and all of existence.

Hence, it's like a systematic mathematical formula that allows complete free flow while encompassing the mathematical order of existence itself.

And I have been able to make it not only simple but easy and workable, right across the board, for everyone of all ages, backgrounds, personalities and situations, as long as people will collaborate with me, either fully or even partially, and with the proviso that everything is ultimately according to Divine Order and Divine Timing.

The proviso has to be stated only because no one can control anything. However, with the hefty amount of experience I've had, I'd say anyone who comes to me usually goes away with amazing results, very quickly and if they continue to do the inner work I show them how to do, the results will not only be sustainable, they will grow incrementally or hugely as well.

Come step into the Vastness that you are... the Vastness that we all are...

Come say YES to You, to Life, to All That Is, and flourish immeasurably, in all areas of your life...

Benefits of J.O.Y.™

1. Clearing of all blocks that currently stop you from moving forward powerfully, easily, effortlessly and joyously - done in a way that is highly efficient and thorough, a way that is powerful and quick, yet painless and sustainable
2. Establishing of an increasingly strong internal alignment that connects you to Higher Intelligence, giving you direct and constant access to the Wisdom and the Power that lie within you and all around us, that is an integral part of this Intelligence
3. Establishing of an alignment with all current desired results, everything that greatly matters to you now, paving the way for the rapid materialisation of these results - from emotional and spiritual states and goals, including happiness and clarity, awakening and ascension, to relationships and career or business, money and health, anything that is important to you at the moment. Nothing is too large or

Return to the Innocence and the Greatness of who we really are, which is love, Invincible Love.

It is a path of one-pointed faith and simplicity, magic and miracles, and therefore, a much easier and far more productive and creative, innovative and abundant, practical and joyous way to live, one that I would highly recommend.

In fact, this return is what I call J.OY.™ or the Journey of Yes™, and my raison d'être is to take people on this journey, lead them towards stepping into Vastness, each at their own pace and timing, bringing joy and abundance, into their lives to begin with.

And it also brings me enormous joy and gratitude to be supporting others to do and have all of this, all of themselves and their own Greatness!

small, it's only a matter of whether it is truly what your heart and soul desire...

4. Both the process of establishing a powerful and increasingly strong internal alignment and the alignment of desired outcomes will also result in the emergence of a powerful new you, the real you, your True Self..
5. How quickly and powerfully all of the above takes place depends on you and Divine Order. Everything will occur according to the Divine Plan already mapped out for you, so it will be carried out at your pace and according to what's perfect for you, and yet, the transformation will be more amazingly fast and profound than is usually possible - if you collaborate fully with the process
6. I've been teaching clients how to manifest long before The Secret was out and the Law of Attraction was made popular. But I have always (in the last 22 years or more) chosen to focus on two universal laws that many are still unfamiliar with: The Law of Least Effort and the Law of Emergence, giving the whole manifestation process both greater depth and precision.
The Law of Attraction - or the Law of Resonance - as I prefer to call it, is only part of the two afore-mentioned primary laws, albeit an important part. And, I've made it simple and easy for people to raise their own resonance with that of the desired results.
7. After various awesome mystical experiences, beginning with the experience of Absolute Oneness, where the golden light emerged from within me and filled my bedroom from floor to ceiling, in the year 2000, I was guided to create a powerful tool that I call "The Golden Globe" and which is a wonderful Key to Mastery.
With a practical and profoundly deep knowledge of how we operate in this world and the Universe, I have incorporated and optimised the mechanics of universal laws into the Golden Globe, making it unnecessary for you to figure things out and providing you with maximum support, on your way to great freedom, independence, loving power and abundance of all kind.
8. When used regularly, the Golden Globe keeps you internally aligned, increasingly and powerfully so, and supports you to consciously materialise all your goals,

Time to blossom & flourish...

"Thank you so much, it was soooooo beautiful. I felt things that I have never felt before. I felt love that I have never felt before. I felt darkness I have never felt before, even though I lived with it for so long. And now, I feel SO joyful and SO peaceful, and also SO relieved. It's amazing!"

~ Sheila Ulrich, USA, after her first session with me, as part of The Path of The Invincible™, my foundational one-on-one program that she did.

objectives and desired results in a way that is, as mentioned above - easy, effortless, powerful and joyous, and really, really quickly too.

Hence it is truly about the emergence of your True Self, your True Greatness, the Invincible Love that resides within all of us, living a happy and joyous life of peace and faith, magic and miracles, ease and grace, fun and enjoyment, etc

9. It takes you to an infinitely higher level of consciousness, a higher level of being and operating, living and loving, working and creating. It really shows you how to say YES to yourself, to life, to all that shows up within yourself and in your life, saying NO to everything that is not right for you, drawing healthy boundaries easily and effortlessly.
10. I will show you how to raise your DQ™ or "Deservability Quotient™", as I call it, so that you will be able to allow all the wonderful things into your life, everything that you have always longed for but have found unattainable because you have not felt deserving enough. While my clients have enjoyed being able to create magic and miracles in their lives, they also understand that part of the so-called formula is to let go of attachment to outcomes or to "let go and let God" and that everything is still according to Divine Order and Divine Plan. But you will nonetheless be very happy with the results you will get, including the greater peace and confidence, and much, much more - all possible with your full collaboration, of course.
11. My methodology and approach is very liberating and empowering, and it will support you to spontaneously come from love and power simultaneously. You will feel like you're being renewed and completely different, and yet in the same body, just a whole lot freer and far more true to yourself. You can get stronger and healthier, more energetic and younger as well, provided that you take the necessary steps that I will share with you. And you can help your loved ones to improve their health as well.
12. I will assist you to live from your Soul or Inner Being, from the True Greatness within you, which is the Invincible Love within all of us, and if you are called to embark on your divine life purpose or soul purpose, and live it, then I can support you to do so as well, in a way tailored just for you.

VERY POWERFUL CALLS ❤️

"Thank you Helen for the call last night. Very powerful. One of the many things that came up last night was the place of being nice to people and stuffing my feelings and there was some very good feedback to this.

I see clearly a situation this morning and I have been the polite person I was conditioned to be. It is time for me to stand up, be centred and in love to address this. Thank you.

The calls have been very powerful and I appreciate you Helen who has believed in me and loved me when I could not do that for myself. Love to you and to everyone!"

- Gail Dodd, Virginia, U.S.A.

FOCUSED ON GIVING BACK NOW ❤️

"Thank you for inviting me to participate in your preview yesterday. I still remember attending a workshop at your place in 2005, when we were taught to use the Golden Globe, and I think I even gave a testimonial during one of your free talks after that.

Everything is working so well in my life now and I am currently focused on giving back."

- Caroline Cheng, Bali, Indonesia

THE GOLDEN GLOBE: A POWERFUL KEY TO MASTERY ❤️

"The Golden Globe is magical and has been an awesome tool. I have been using it daily and it has helped in all aspects of my life. Firstly, I met with my Soul, using the Globe and the experience was simply beautiful. I felt so still and calm and no words can describe how wonderful the feeling was.

You will know what I mean when you experience it yourself. I also always use the Globe to step into Vastness itself, as it makes me feel so good. And I bring the Divinity of my Soul and Vastness into my life, supporting myself to fearlessly make the shifts I've longed to make but couldn't before.

Also, 3 years ago, my mum who was then 79 years old, was suffering from dizzy spells almost daily and she could not leave the house because of it. She was feeling very depressed, lost her confidence and even felt that her time was up. I used the many healing tools I had at the time but they only provided her temporary relief.

Last year, when I started practising the Golden Globe on my mum, i witnessed the transformation. After a couple of sessions, she felt better and healthier, and the dizziness became less frequent. Today, she does not have any dizzy spells anymore and she can confidently leave the house to run errands and do things that she enjoys.

As for my own health, a few weeks ago, I checked my blood pressure and it was at 199. I immediately used the Golden Globe for 15 mins and when I checked again, it had gone down to 156. I am simply amazed and grateful.

Helen, I can't thank you enough for the Golden Globe and the amazing experiences i have encountered with it. I had previously learnt and used several different types of meditation techniques for healing, ascension, liberation, etc but the Globe is, by far, my favourite.

It is a very effective tool for both physical healing and at the soul level. I have greatly progressed at both levels, with it, and most importantly, it is such an easy-to-use and flexible tool. I dutifully use it daily and the results have been simply amazing and powerful.”
